Attorney Docket No. 114089.121US1

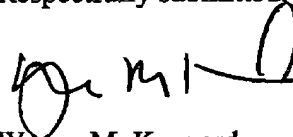

Conclusion

The foregoing fully responds to the Examiner's requirement that a species be elected to be prosecuted on the merits in the present application. As such, prosecution on the merits with regard to claims 14-28 should commence.

In the Amendment dated October 25, 2005, Applicant presented grounds that make plain claims 14-28, in amended form, overcome each of the Examiner's bases for rejection of the claims based on the prior art of record taken alone or in combination. Applicant respectfully requests that the Examiner consider claims 14-28, in amended form, and pass them to issue in due course because such claim are allowable over the prior art of record for the reasons set forth in that Amendment, and in condition for allowance.

Dated: 1-26-2006
